FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Nexsen Pruet Offices Choose LawBase

DENVER – January 7, 2014 – LawBase, the leading case and matter management system designed to increase productivity, today announced Nexsen Pruet, one of the largest law firms in the Carolinas, has implemented LawBase to help them with their collection, foreclosure and bankruptcy services.

Law firms which provide default-related legal services for matters such as bankruptcies, collections, and foreclosures, are required to follow certain requirements and procedures. LawBase can help law firms manage this process.

“We are honored Nexsen Pruet chose to work with LawBase,” said Phil Homburger, president of LawBase. “They are a great law firm with close to 200 attorneys and we look forward to helping them with their needs in default services.”

Christy Myatt, Chair of the Bankruptcy/Creditors Rights Group at Nexsen Pruet, commented “Not only did LawBase provide an extremely robust and user-friendly case management system but they also had an experienced team able to refine the system to fit the needs of our attorneys and clients.

In the last year, LawBase has added expanded reporting capabilities and enhanced bidirectional integration with Microsoft Exchange and the availability of bidirectional integration with Worldox Document Management to its capabilities.
