C&S LegalTech Consulting Group LLC Chooses LawBase Practice Management Tool

Full-service technology and practice management consulting company recognizes benefits of having clients use LawBase

Denver – July 9, 2015 – LawBase, the leading case and matter management system designed to increase productivity, today announces the company’s signature product has been chosen by C&S LegalTech Consulting Group LLC as a practice management solution for its clients.

C&S LegalTech is a full-service technology and practice management consulting company specializing in law firm practice management and accounting systems. C&S LegalTech also provides a turnkey hosting solution to move clients’ networks and software applications to the cloud. “In our search for the best matter management system, we discovered LawBase – a flexible, powerful and easy-to-use case/matter management system designed to increase the efficiency and profitability of your law office,” states Pat Cunningham, founder and president of C&S LegalTech. “LawBase is designed to fit the way you do business, not the other way around. With the ability to custom design your own database screens, you have the freedom to use pertinent vocabulary, organization and presentation styles. Most importantly, you decide what information is relevant to your practice. LawBase also integrates with the Worldox document management system and various accounting packages we support.”

“We are honored to be chosen by C&S LegalTech as a solution for clients needing a practice management tool,” states Phil Homburger, president of LawBase. “They are a well-recognized company in this space with extensive experience in the legal IT space. We look forward to working with them and their clients.”

LawBase is an easy-to-use, powerful and configurable case management solution, known for incredible flexibility without sacrificing functionality. LawBase’s strengths include its wide array of integrations with other popular legal software that maximize the return on investment for users. LawBase allows law firms, corporate legal departments and government agencies to track a file’s progress, maintain client files within various areas of the law, keep complete calendars and schedules, maintain file room management and perform large repetitive tasks with just a few keystrokes, saving time and money.
