FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LawBase Exhibiting at the National North American Consumer Protection Investigators 38th Annual Conference

Denver – July 27, 2015 – LawBase, the leading case and matter management system designed to increase productivity, today announced company president Phil Homburger is in attendance and the company is exhibiting at the National North American Consumer Protection Investigators (NACPI) 38th Annual Training and Business Conference. The conference started yesterday and will run through July 29. It is being held in Breckenridge, Colorado.

The conference “Taking Consumer Protection to New Heights” has educational opportunities, expert speakers, roundtable discussions and networking opportunities for attendees from around North America. NACPI is represented by consumer protection agencies (local, state and federal) from all over the United States and Canada. The 2015 conference host committee is the Consumer Fraud Unit of the Colorado attorney general's office.

“We enjoy participating in this event each year,” states Homburger. “NACPI is a highly recognized organization focusing on consumer affairs. Many of our clients attend this event, and it provides a great opportunity for attendees to network with each other, receive educational training on techniques for investigating, managing and litigating consumer fraud cases and learn more about consumer legislation. We look forward to our time with attendees at this event.”
