LawBase Named in Legaltech News and The Recorder 2016 Innovation Awards

Company Recognized in Case/Matter Management System Category

Denver – May 2, 2016 – LawBase, the leading case and matter management system designed to increase productivity, today announces LawBase has been named in Legaltech News and The Recorder 2016 Innovation Awards in the Case/Matter Management Category.

According to the announcement by Legaltech News, the Innovation Awards are “a Who’s Who of the legal tech industry collectively moving the needle forward.”

ALM will be holding a recognition event for the award recipients during Legaltech West Coast on June 13 at the W San Francisco. In addition, a blue-ribbon panel will review all of the winning products and name the most innovative new product of the year at the awards dinner.

“We are thrilled and honored to be recognized in the Innovation Awards,” states Phil Homburger, president of LawBase. “We are continually updating LawBase to ensure it remains a powerful and configurable case management solution. It is known in the industry for its incredible flexibility and functionality, and we are pleased the judging panel at Legaltech News and The Recorder recognized us for these achievements.”
