FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LawBase to Exhibit at Worldox End User Conference and Partner Expo

Denver – October 11, 2016 – LawBase, the leading case and matter management system designed to increase productivity, today announces the company will be exhibiting at Worldox’s End User Conference and Partner Expo (www.worldox.com/event/2016-worldox-user-conference) taking place October 17-21 at The Buttes in Tempe, AZ.

“We have been partnering with Worldox for years to provide clients with a simple integration to ensure they have the most efficient, productive office possible,” states Phil Homburger, president of LawBase. “With LawBase and Worldox together, our clients are able to keep both their cases and documents managed and organized. We are happy with the relationship we have with Worldox and excited to being a part of their user and end-user conference. We know that many Worldox users are still working with outdated case and matter management software and are looking for a modern alternative with a free conversion. We look forward to showing them how LawBase can help them find what they need.”

LawBase is a powerful and configurable case management solution, known for incredible flexibility without sacrificing functionality. LawBase’s strengths include its wide array of integrations with other popular legal software, like Worldox, to maximize the return on investment for users.

LawBase allows law firms, corporate legal departments and government agencies to track a file’s progress, maintain client files within various areas of the law, keep complete calendars and schedules, maintain file room management and perform large repetitive tasks with just a few keystrokes, saving time and money.
