Denver – March 30, 2017 – LawBase, the leading case and matter management system designed to increase productivity, announces the company will be exhibiting in booth #413 at the 2017 ALA Annual Conference and Expo, taking place at the Colorado Convention Center on April 2-5, 2017.

This conference will feature more than 80 educational sessions and an exhibit hall.

“We are thrilled to be part of the ALA Annual Conference for 2017,” states Phil Homburger, president of LawBase. “This event always proves to not only offer great educational sessions, but also brings opportunities to network with other attendees. This year, the event is being held in our backyard, making it even more valuable.”

Earlier this year, the company announced a partnership with LegalShift, a leading legal management consulting and advisory firm, to integrate the award-winning legal project management (LPM) framework, BakerManage®, into its LawBase offering.
