FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LawBase to Attend M&L Summer Forum

Denver – June 26, 2017 – LawBase, the leading case and matter management system designed to increase productivity, today announces company executive, Jim Stewart, will be in attendance at the M&L Summer Forum being in Asheville, NC, June 29 – July 1, 2017.

This is a bi-annual event that has been taking place for more than 20 years and includes 30 law firms from across the country and Canada. The event is open to personal injury law firms, one firm per advertising district with attorneys, marketing directors, and law firm managers as the attendees.

“This is an event we attend every year and thoroughly enjoy the organization and networking with the attendees,” states Phil Homburger, president of LawBase. “Personal injury attorneys attend this event to learn more about how to manage their work flow and to learn about new tools, technology and marketing initiatives that will make their firm more productive. This is a great place for Jim to showcase LawBase to the attendees so they can see first-hand how it can help their firm.”

LawBase is an easy to use, powerful and configurable case management solution, known for incredible flexibility without sacrificing functionality. LawBase’s strengths include its wide array of integrations with other popular legal software that maximize the return on investment for users. LawBase allows law firms, corporate legal departments and government agencies to track a file’s progress, maintain client files within various areas of the law, keep complete calendars and schedules, maintain file room management and perform large repetitive tasks with just a few keystrokes, saving time and money.

Registration and more information on this event is available at <http://www.mlmeeting.com/>.
