LawBase Announces 2018 User Group Meeting – The LawBase Huddle

First annual meeting fills to capacity due to high demand

Denver – June 29, 2018 – LawBase, the preeminent case and matter management software system for the legal industry, announced today the company’s First Annual User Group Meeting – The LawBase Huddle - will take place in Denver, Colorado on July 26-27. Due to high demand, the meeting is filled to capacity.

The LawBase Huddle will offer attendees several sessions during the conference including:

- Discovery of underused capabilities of LawBase
- Advanced tips and tricks presented by front line consultants and the support team
- Information on the myriad integrations available with third party products
- Exposure to new capabilities in the software
- Discussion of future product plans
- Sharing of information and tips and tricks with other LawBase users

“This is an especially exciting event for us. Having so many of our users together for a full day of sessions is a great opportunity for learning and development for all involved. LawBase is a very powerful system and we look forward to sharing undiscovered benefits, future plans and much more with our clients,” said Phil Homburger, President of LawBase. “We’re excited to have the opportunity to have so many LawBase users together with a single goal – talk about the product and how it is working for them. Our goal has always been, and continues to be, ensuring we have the best technology available to our clients.”
