LawBase Announces Updates to Signature Product

Improved calendar functioning, query by example and external reporting improvements all part of latest upgrade

Denver – June 8, 2015 – LawBase, the leading case and matter management system designed to increase productivity, today announced the company has updated its signature product to augment functionality and improve user experience.

LawBase frequently updates the product to give users an enhanced tool to efficiently manage their practice. The updates are done automatically so users do not have to make any changes on their end. The most recent improvements include:

- Improved Calendar Functioning
- Query By Example
- Improved External Reporting Tools

LawBase is a powerful and configurable case and matter management solution known for incredible flexibility without sacrificing functionality. It has a wide array of integrations with other popular legal software products to maximize the return on investment for users. With LawBase, law firms, corporate legal departments and government agencies are able to track a file’s progress, maintain client files within various areas of the law, keep complete calendars and schedules, maintain file room management and perform large repetitive tasks with just a few keystrokes, saving time and money.

“We want our users to always have the most efficient and effective product for managing their cases,” states Phil Homburger, president of LawBase. “These latest enhancements further show our commitment to our users and our goal to ensure LawBase is delivering on their changing needs.”
